

Press Release

www.cimp.ac.in

On occasion of National Youth Day and to celebrate the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, Chandragupt Institute of Management Patna (CIMP) organized an interaction with Mr. Vikas Vaibhav, IPS, Inspector General, Homeguards and Fire Services, Bihar.

The welcome address has been proposed by Prof. (Dr.) Rana Singh, Director, CIMP. Dr. Rana Singh welcomed the guest, other dignitaries and audience. In his address Dr. Singh specially talks about youth day. In his address he mentioned about Swami Vivekananda his personality, hard work and about how Swami ji believes himself and inspires others.

Dr. Rana specially mentioned the speech in which Swami ji addressed with the starting line "dear brother and sister" which shows the power of interpersonal communication in the domain of management.

Further, Mr. Vikas Vaibhav, IPS, Inspector General, Homeguards and Fire Services, Bihar in his addressed firstly thanked Prof. (Dr.) Rana Singh, Director, CIMP for inviting in this memorable day. In his address he explains about the history of Swami Vivekananda's journey from childhood to the conference in Chicago in 1893, where he delivered the speech, which proudly motivated the all Indian in that time.

Mr. Vikas Vaibhav also talks about how important are to generate self confidence from an inside and to have a self believe. He talks about his journey in Bihar, about his education and how he achieved this position.

Earlier this day, on the celebration of Swami Vivekananda's birth anniversary, a ceremony was held in which the statue was feted and saplings were planted in the park situated at the Mauryalok complex in Patna.

Shri. Kumod Kumar, Chief Administrative Officer, CIMP, offered the vote of thanks. In his address he gives a heartfelt thanks to respected guest and other dignitaries. Faculty members, students, staffs and others distinguished dignitaries were present during the session.

