Chandragupt Institute of Management Patna (CIMP) organized a Face2Face event with Shri. Abhay Kumar, Poet, Editor, Translator, Joint Secretary, MEA India & DDG- ICCR under the IIC activity.

Prof. (Dr.) Rana Singh, Director, CIMP opened the event with a welcome speech. Dr. Rana Singh, Director, CIMP welcomed the guest, other dignitaries and audience. He also mentioned Mr. Abhay Kumar as a one of the most dynamic bureaucrats of India and Bihar.

Further this day, Shri. Abhay Kumar, addressed the audience and said as he came here to present his book the Bihari Literature because as we are aware about the legacy of Bihari language like bhojpuri, magahi, angika, Pali, prakrit, urdu and hindi etc.

Shri. Abhay Kumar also mentioned that in his book the first poem is too old but connected to women. It talks about freedom of women and the amount of work they perform in a daily life without taking any day off.

Further, He also said that this book has also collection of chankya neeti and written in Sanskrit but translated in other languages. He says that don't trust anyone whether he is your best friend or not because when an argument arise between both of you, he can disclose your secret. In the book there is a poem about Nalanda University, the story of its brightness, glorious past, destruction and restoration phase. Here is the rise of Nalanda 800 years later after ashes of lots of books and literature, filled with lots of emotions of Fahyan, Huen Tsang and many more. Later The Book of Bihari Literature by Shri Abhay Kumar has also been launched.

Shri. Kumod Kumar, Chief Administrative Officer, CIMP delivered the Vote of Thanks. In his address he gives a heartfelt thanks to the respected guest and other participants. Faculty members, students, staffs and others distinguished dignitaries were present during the session.
